Useful android apps 2019

Source: Marco Miranda Our phones are pocket-sized supercomputers with professional quality cameras and battery days, but without the best Android apps to use what would be the point? There are millions of post-millions of Android apps that transform our phones from shiny glass slabs into productivity powerhouses, and over the past year, these are apps that have seized the day and made our lives easier, faster and better. So now that you have one of the best Android phones of the year, make sure you download all the best Android apps. Source: Nick Sutrich/ Android Central Who needs a personal assistant if you have services like Google Assistant and Amazon Alexa available, where do you go? This type of app aims to help relieve the stress and pressures of everyday life to make it easier to work. From automation to smart home products and everything between them, these apps let you get things done with someone. From Assistant Order to Google Clock to a wide expansion of Assistant-compatible smart home devices to recycle visual responses, it's been a busy year for Google Assistant. It feels like a century ago when Android Auto added a Google Assistant, but that simple addition made millions of drivers safer, especially on these long, frustrating holiday drives. The free Google Play Tasker stagnated a bit in previous years, but since new owner João Dias - the maker of the AutoApps plugin suite and Tasker's most ardent fan - took over, the automation app has seen a UI overhaul and major updates. With TaskerNet and improved export/import, it's never been easier to share, tweak, and create amazing profiles and tasks for Android (and beyond). $3.49 at Google Play Amazon is no longer the best place to go solely for your online shopping needs as the company continues to expand its understanding of the world. With Alexa, you get a personalized assistant in your pocket, as well as integration with Echo devices and the ability to stay connected wherever you go. You can even make calls or send messages to other Alexa-enabled devices without paying a dime. For free on Google Play Have you ever wanted to know what kind of flower you see on a hike? Well, with Google Lens you can find out quickly just by holding your camera up to flower. The lens will even translate foreign languages or save business cards to the contact more quickly than ever before. Google Play IFTTT free gives you the right to create a variety of automation between apps and services that are not yet available. With over 630 different integrations, you can create your own recipe and get alert when this item on your Amazon wishlist finally goes on sale, for example. If you don't want to create your own, there is a community and library with different recipes to choose from and create. Free google Play Do you need to control your lights, smart candles, or helper speakers/displays from heat beds or furthest corners corners The new home view in the Google Home Page app makes it easier. Being able to add Home members to take advantage of what you've already created is a huge step forward in making smart homes more accessible to all skill levels. For free, Google Play's best keyboard app source: Android Central Keyboard is one of the most commonly used apps of the day on your smartphone. It's the first thing to pop up when your friend sends you a message if you need to reply to an email, or if you need to get your thoughts out. But the great thing is that there's a keyboard app that works for everyone, no matter what something basic, or if you want to go to extremes of customization. The Gboard keyboard continues to dominate the market with an increasingly expandable range of features for Android, iOS and soon Chromebooks. Some additions this year, which include features such as making your own emoji pack or gifs, may seem trivial, but Gboard has also added support to dozens of new languages, as well as the recently floating keyboard mode that makes filling forms a breeze. Free Google Play instead of dealing with basic stock themes on the keyboard, Chroma gives you a keyboard with so many customization options that your head will spin. This is in addition to featuring smart AI to provide significantly improved contextual forecasts compared to competition. You will also get the added advantage of gestures that you already know and love. Free w/ IAP at Google Play SwiftKey is creeping on four million download mile-markers and for good reason; this custom keyboard provides complete control. The app itself sports over 100 different themes and you can even create your own theme with an image that you had or downloaded as wallpaper. SwiftKey also includes support for over 300 languages, and you can enable up to five different languages at once. Free google play many keyboard apps just focus on whether your spelling is wrong. Grammar takes things to the next level with smart predictions, and even the ability to choose from synonyms if you want to sound fancy. Not only can you expand your vocabulary, but your writing sounds professional. Free w/ IAP google play the best browser source: Android Central While the Google app allows you to easily quickly search for something, your mobile browser handles a lot of heavy lifting. Some of these mobile browsers have become so powerful that you can install extensions, while others provide as many private browsing experiences as possible. And hey, one of our cuffs even gives its users the opportunity to make some puzzles while surfing. While ads help keep the light on some, they can be a real nuisance when you just try to check out the latest article. With a browser like Brave, you are guaranteed to get the best Adblock browser while getting a fast and safe browsing experience. There's also an additional benefit of Brave paying you to browse your pace and how you want. Free w/ ads on Google Play Samsung's Samsung's finally made your Play Store debut a few years back and is much stronger than almost anything else you'll find. In addition to the built-in privacy features, Samsung also allows you to download third-party applications that act as extensions. In addition, if you already have a Samsung device and use this browser, you'll get even more features that aren't available elsewhere, such as integration with Gear VR and other features. Free Google Play in Google Chrome is a de-facto choice for many and for good reason: it just works. Google has worked tirelessly to bring new features to the app, as well as maintain a fresh and crisp design. With Chrome, you'll get almost all the same features on your computer as the app, including sync options, so you can start reading something on your phone and pick it up on your computer. Free Google Play Firefox already has fan-favorite desktop browsing, so why not test your mobile browser? Includes built-in ad tracking blocking, enhanced privacy controls, and extensions to give you all the tools you need. Free Google Play Best VPN Apps Source: Harish Jonnalagadda/Android Central Virtual Private Networks (VPN) are used for an array of reasons, including giving you the ability to hide your online identity. Another popular use of VPN is to stream some TV shows while you travel abroad. These apps are free, but there are subscriptions to consider if you want to browse safely everywhere. With over 3,000 different servers in over 90 countries, it's easy to see why ExpressVPN provides a great experience. It's easy to get started, and then all your web browsing is encrypted and you can surf safely. After you sign up, the service isn't connected to the number of devices you can add, and it will even protect your text and instant messages. Free w/ IAP at Google Play NordVPN is one of the best in business because of the way that it handles your data. The data crosses the original server and then sends the same encrypted data to the second server to get an additional layer of protection. Plus, there are over 5,500 servers spread across over 50 countries. Free w/ IAP at Google Play Surfshark stands out at speed and because it can be used with an unlimited number of servers at the same time. It will be great for just about everything you want to do with your devices, but you won't be able to use Surfshark with streaming apps because it's located outside of US Free w/IAP google Play with IPVanish, you'll be provided with a secure environment to browse the web, watch videos, and manage your bills. The service provides access to navigate over 1,400 different servers in 75 countries, as well as 24/7 support. In case you do not want to stick with this service, you have 30 days to change your mind. Free Google Play Best File Management Apps Source: Andrew Myrick/Android Central Although Many of Us Have the way we use our phones, there are things that will never change - we download a lot of things. I am not only talking about applications, but also about music files, documents, PDFs or even new wallpapers. It is important for your files to be organized so you know where everything is or get rid of these stale memes. If you tend to download boatload files to your smartphone, you need Simple File Manager Pro to keep them organized. This app offers an intuitive experience to access your root files while giving access to microSD cards or USB devices. Plus, there are many customization options to create a theme that fits your preferences. $1.19 at Google Play Some want a simplistic file manager, but for those who want something a bit more complicated, the X-Plore File Manager is perfect. This app has an old-school Windows look and feel, while giving you all the features you might want. You can even set up an app to access and manage files on your Android phone from your computer's web browser. Free w/ IAP google Play files on Google started as an experimental app, but it has turned into an easy way to keep your storage from getting filled up. With features like Smart Recommendations, Files will recommend junk files that you can download and get rid of with ease. The free Google Play Astro has been available on the Play Store for over 10 years and remains one of the best file manager options. The app allows easy access to your files as well as opening these annoying Zip and RAR files directly from your smartphone. In addition, you can manage your cloud storage services directly from the Astro, making it a single memory option. Free Google Play Best Social Media Apps Source: Android Central social media is a fickle sister. It can be a great source of news and information and an easy way to stay in touch with friends, but it's also frustrating when the latest trends and memes clog your schedules. Fortunately, there are many different platforms to share your voice with like-minded people or create an awesome community. I've been a third-party Reddit lurker for years, but this year the official Reddit app breezed past Relay, Boost, and the rest of the top app option. Reddit's new website looks to be the source of a lot of small discussions, but I've quite enjoyed both new website to look at the constant improvements to the Android app. Now if only /r/Writing Prompts don't suck all my dinner breaks... The popularity of free Google Play Instagram continues to grow and it seems that there's simply nothing any competitor can do to stop it. This app is one of the best and easiest ways to share your favorite photos, whether you're following your life or just like to edit goofy pictures. In addition, you'll get similar features to IGTV from some of your favorite creators, and the app makes it easy to find even more users/brands. Free Google Play Let's face it. There are many Twitter apps in the Play Store, and although many of them are pretty good, none of them Compete against Fenix 2. From multiple account support to a super-useful dumb system, Fenix 2 aims to be the best Twitter client available. It doesn't even count customization options that allow you to customize your layout while giving the opportunity to make a topic that makes Twitter more enjoyable to use. $4.99 on Google Play Just for everyone you know, there's snapchat and a good reason because it makes sharing your life easier than before. You'll get private messaging, free cloud storage, and a variety of ways to make your photos and videos perfect. Free w/ ads for Google Play Best Photography Apps Source: Andrew Martonik/Android Central After years of potato pictures from mobile devices, we finally have a place where our smartphones can take better images than some DSLR cameras. The Play Store opens the door to many different apps to take, edit, and save these photos, which in some cases act as a digital memory bank. ProCam X unlocks the potential that your smartphone camera is capable of, which is pretty much nowadays. The app allows you to control different aspects of the image by providing professional controls such as ISO, white balance, and even geo-tagging. With this app, you can even take RAW photos that open up even better image editing after the fact. $5 on Google Play After you've taken a picture, you might want to edit it. With Adobe Lightroom, you can make simple edits or perform actions created with the product and edited as a pro, directly from your smartphone. Adobe even has a built-in pro-level camera to make Lightroom become your all-in-one solution for your mobile photography needs. Free w/ IAP at Google Play For those who care more about supporting your photo and less about pro level editing, the only real choice is Google Photos. The app itself gives users some basic photo editing capabilities, while occasionally giving you stylized photos of how Google thinks your photo should look. In addition, you'll get smart automatic albums, photobooks, and you'll be able to create shared albums in seconds. Free on Google Play Our smartphone cameras today are more powerful than ever, and we're not just talking about taking pictures. With a program like FiLMiC Pro, you can take professional videos and get complete control over the editing process. Those already familiar with recording videos on the DSLR will feel at home without having to lug around the camera bag. $15 at Google Play Best Customization Apps Source: Joe Maring/Android Central The biggest benefit for Android compared to competition is the ability to customize just about every aesthetic aspect of your device. From widgets you use to how your app's drawer looks, and even the settings menu, there's a way to customize everything. These are the best apps to get the exact look you want on your smartphone. If at the beginning of the year you told me that the launcher I would like to use was a Smart Launcher, I've laughed in your face. Then Smart Launcher 5 arrived and I fell in love. Flexible categorized app drawers are better than ever, and with the integration of Icon Pack Studio and gridless widget system, SL5 makes building and switching themes a breeze. Free w/ IAP at Google Play Lawnchair 2 gives you that Pixel Launcher feeling, with all the customizations that you might find in other third-party launchers. There is support for Adaptive Icons, as well as new drawer category features, and much more. You can use Lawnchair to create the most complex or basic launcher on your mobile device. Free Google Play big brother Kustom widget maker KWGT, Kustom Live Wallpaper's one-stop theme has grown for me significantly this year. While SL5's gridless widgets are nice, nothing beats accurately, the edge-to-edge widget and element placement of KLWP. Formulas and menus can be daunting, but KLWP's stable community, especially Reddit, help make any topic possible. Free /$4.49 google play icon pack can be frustrating if you've found an iconic package that you like, but there are some apps that aren't included. Of course, you can submit a request to the developer and wait for the update to come, but there's a better solution. With Icon Pack Studio, you can create your own icon pack by customizing each icon to your liking, and it will work with almost any third-party launcher. Free or $4.49 (Pro) google play changing wallpapers are fun as long as we've been able to do it, and Tapet has been right there with us for quite some time. With Tapet, you can choose wallpapers on your own or set the app to automatically create a new one for you every hour or once a day. In addition, the app will automatically determine the resolution of your smartphone so that the background image looks expressive and doesn't color the Home screen. Free w/ IAP at Google Play Some of us don't have time or want to dive through the thousands of iconic packages, but just want something that looks great. Whicons are not flashy (on the surface), but it does work that gives you a good looking icon pack for your Android phone. There are over 5,500 custom icons, as well as included wallpapers to match, and Dynamic Calendar Icon support so your calendar shows the correct date. Free w/ IAP at Google Play Source: Ara Wagoner/ Android Central In addition to customizing your phone to your heart content, you can use widgets to quickly digest various bits of information. Whether you're just looking to see what the weather forecast looks like, or you need to see what's on the agenda today, there's a widget for everything. Then other apps allow you to create your own widget with any information you can think of. Best Password Managers Source: Joe Maring/Android Central Absolutely, positively, under no circumstances should there be a note on your smartphone with passwords listed. Hackers are better than ever today your personal information can be discovered more easily than you think. However, if you have a password manager, these passwords can be analyzed, and then you'll be notified if your password is compromised. The app can then help you create a secure, secure, and almost unbreakable password so that your information doesn't fall into the wrong hands. 1Password hasn't always been the best option in the Play Store, but recent updates have upped the ante and pushed it to the tops of the charts. The service provides a short trial period before you need to sign up for a subscription. And your vaults will remain protected while giving you the ability to keep important personal information safe, but be ready. Free w/ IAP at Google Play LastPass does a fantastic job of keeping all your passwords safe and secure, even if you want to stick to a free account. Then there are premium options for either one user or you can get your family protected by a special plan. The service even offers Security Issues that help keep your passwords up to date and secure in the hands of the bad guys. Free w/ IAP at Google Play When it comes to Dashlane, you'll get access to up to 50 passwords saved on one device with the free version, but Premium gives you even more. With a Premium subscription, users can access personalized VPNs, credit monitoring and identity theft protection. That's all that's a great place to keep your passwords safe and making it easy to update. Free w/ IAP at Google Play Stop using the same password every time you create a new login on the web. Enpass is a simple password manager that works regardless of whether you're connected to the web or not, because data is stored on your device, not on your company's servers. But you can easily sync all your passwords across your devices with popular cloud services like Dropbox, Google Drive, and more. Free w/ IAP at Google Play Best Messaging Apps Source: Android Central Let's be real, messaging is the main way that almost everyone communicates. Thanks to various apps and services, it's much easier to shoot mom's text than to call her and sit on the phone for an hour or more. Not everything requires a phone call, and these messaging programs open the door to make it easier to communicate with friends, family, colleagues, and others. Dark theme! Messages for the web! It's been a great year for google sms app, and although I still miss the Mood Messenger and Textra themes, the only third-party SMS app that can compete with messages on the web is pulse paid SMS sync service that is compatible with more platforms and browsers. Messages theming might be missing, but the dark theme is a welcome addition. Free Google Play android central has been slacked for years because Slack is one of the best chat apps on the market today, either for business or personal purposes. Threads allow us to get into without spashing the main chat, and anyone can upload custom slackmoji added flair. All it needs now is a dark theme so I don't blind my bosses when I ping them in 2 a.m. Free Google Play SMS Organizer started as a fun project from the Microsoft Garage team, but has turned into one of the smartest apps you can download. Although you can still send SMS and MMS messages, SMS Organizer generates automatic reminders from your conversations and even makes it easier for a friend to pay for dinner directly from the app. You can even easily block spam messages, customize notifications and set specific ringtones for your contacts. Free Google Play Telegram was already one of the fastest and most popular third-party messaging clients available, but Telegram X is getting things up once. With version X, the interaction with the app is even faster, and there are even more features, as well as an improved interface and many gestures to use. Free Google Play Controversy has been developed by gamers at heart, but more and more are switching to the messaging platform thanks to its integration and ease of use. You can quickly create a user community with simple community management while creating member roles and inviting links ready. Free Google Play If end-to-end encryption is the name of the game, then Signal Private Messenger is the best choice. This service guarantees that every message you send is secure, and you can even set the app as the default SMS client on your Android device. You can even make audio and video calls that are guaranteed to stay private, no matter what. Free Google Play Best Weather Apps Source: Harish Jonnalagadda/Android Central No one wants to get caught in a downpity at the wrong time and it's important to know if you'll need your coat or if it's shorts and sandals at the time. There are so many time applications in the Play Store that it is quite difficult to find diamonds in the rough. Fortunately, there are some apps that stand off from the package while offering something unique. AccuWeather has a simple recommendation for a great weather app thanks to its MinuteCast functionality. It gives you the most up-to-date weather alerts so you know if there's a surprise storm that you don't need to get caught. Plus, the app includes live radar in your area showing you where the nearest storm system is so you can get ready. Free w/ IAP at Google Play Weather can be annoying, so it's important to have an app that makes the weather forecast manageable. Today Weather stands out in this regard to its beautifully designed program and access to the various bits of information you might wish for. In addition, it is customizable so that you can either view or hide what you want to know and what you don't do. Free w/ iap google play site relying on the app to tell you, bad weather might be heading your way, why not see it for yourself? RadarScope gives gives radar view of what's going on around you, with up-to-the-minute updates along with possible storm warnings from the National Weather Service. Free w/ IAP at Google Play Yahoo Time has gone a long way over the years and is now sporting a gorgeous design that shows you all the info you need. You can follow up to 20 cities at the same time, or play around with interactive maps to see where the storm system is supposed to go through. Free w/ ads for Google Play Best News Apps Source: Andrew Myrick/Android Central World is moving faster than ever and you don't want to miss out on this useful news being talked about throughout the office. There are news apps from specific sources, but having an aggregator sits in irrelevant messages from the essential. You can use an app that lets you collect important messages from sources you trust in a clean layout. Having a news app to summarize what is important to you, but also giving you an idea of what is happening in the rest of the world is important. Google News does this with quick access to the five best daily headlines and the For You tab so you can read the posts you care about. Google has even included a Full Coverage feature that compiles a list of sources and more about key stories. Free w/ ads on Google Play Feedly are for those who want to have a news app that is tailored to their interests in the world. The app makes it easy to organize your favorite sources with the power of RSS, integrating with other apps like IFTTT and Zapier. With Discover, you can browse through different news categories to learn about different topics you don't usually see. Free w/ IAP at Google Play If you want to follow what's going on in your area and not necessarily the rest of the world, then SmartNews is perfect. The app provides a section that shows your local posts, while giving you the notifications you need and even a widget that you can throw on the Start screen. In addition, you'll be able to access some of the best news sources gathered in one place for quick access. Free w/ ads on Google Play It can be difficult to choose using huge news headlines from various sources. So why not use an app like Inoreader just to pay attention to sources you know and trust? This RSS reader allows you to curate a personalized newsfeed so you just get the message you care about. Free Google Play Best Reading Apps Source: Andrew Myrick/Android Central There is something special about holding a physical book in hand and turning pages while diving deeper and deeper into the story. However, in this day and age, you can have a whole library of books saved directly on your phone. Whether you want to read a book about your lunch break or catch up on a comic book series, these apps make it easy. Amazon's Kindle app is simply fantastic, giving users access to libraries of books, magazines, and more in their pockets. If you have on Amazon Prime, the company gives members access to over 1,000 different titles for free. If you don't have time to read, there is a built-in Audible narration for many books. Free w/ ads on Google Play No time to sit back and read? Let Audible read these audiobooks for you. The app provides suggestions based on your library and preferences, while providing your first audiobook for free after registering. Audible is even allowing users to earn $20 in Amazon credits if they have completed three titles by March 3. What else could you wish for? Free Google Play This is good and excellent to read comics boring ebook readers, but Comixology gives you all the comics you might want a clean interface. There are over 100,000 comics, graphic novels, and manga to choose from, and you can buy them right in the app. Now you can start coming to your favorite comic book series on the go. For free on Google Play Although some e-book readers only allow you to read books purchased directly through their app or in just one format, the Lunar+ reader is much more open. The program supports more than 10 different formats, including EPUB, HTML, and PDF. As your library grows, you can personalize it and create collections, using a single app to read everything at the same time. Free w/ IAP at Google Play Best Sports Apps Source: Andrew Myrick/Android Central Most of the world gets consumed by their favorite sports, from football to the NFL and everything along. With the selection of apps in the Play Store, you can follow them all. Do you want to know if your top fantasy pick got injured, or if you want to catch highlights from last night's game, these apps make it possible. Gone are the days you need a separate application to track your favorite sport. With results, you can track a range of sports, statistics, and more without switching apps. You can even create a personalized feed to track specific teams, leagues, or even your favorite players. Free w/ ads on Google Play ESPN have been worldwide leader sports for over 40 years, and the company continues to bring the best sports content on its way. The app itself allows you to easily stream games from your favorite team as well as giving you highlights to the West Coast game that you fell asleep at the time. Free w/ IAP at Google Play Yahoo Sports is one of the few sports apps that not only lets you read the latest headlines for your favorite team, but allows you to watch games as well. If you missed the game, catch all the highlights in central center or play some fantasy pick-em games if you want to have some fun. With Yahoo Sports, you'll be able to follow all your favorite teams, along with the likes of MMA, boxing, or racing. Free w/ IAP at Google Play Best Video Streaming Apps Source: Ara Wagoner/Android Central Streaming Services is the way to the future and these days, there's a streaming service available While old-time sitcoms and movies are great, these streaming pushing new and original content that uses 4K HDR playback and tells some of the best stories. Then others give you a platform to make your own videos and share them with the world. Disney+ is the new kid on the streaming service block and it is a very welcome addition to the arsenal. The app allows quick access to your favorite Disney classics as well as new shows like Mandalorian for those who want more Star Wars in their lives. The program allows you to create a profile for everyone, and you can download the names directly to your device for easy offline viewing. The free w/ iap at Google Play Netflix is killing the game's original content by providing some of the best movies, documentaries, and TV shows. The company is even working to reboot some of the classic series, but has also been the main source of some older sitcoms and movies. Free Google Play Can you go wrong with the YouTube app? Just sign in to your account and watch videos from your subscriptions or create playlists so you can watch them later. You can even get started as a YouTube creator by editing and uploading videos directly from the app. Free w/ ads on Google Play It's no secret that Warner Media has a huge library of videos, shows, and original content. With HBO Max, you can now access tons of content in its umbrella, including stuff from HBO, TBS, Cartoon Network, and more. You can create up to five different profiles and download some movies for offline viewing if you have a trip that comes up or just doesn't want to deal with streaming. Free w/ IAP at Google Play Best Music Apps Source: Ara Wagoner/Android Central Regardless of whether you're on a road trip or just trying to hunker down and get some work, music makes the world go round. These music streaming services give you the largest library of songs that you can imagine and make products like the iPod look like a weak relic of the past. Just open the app, select a song that is stuck in your head, and belt out the lyrics like there's no tomorrow. Spotify seems to be trying to take over the world of music, but that's a good reason. The app offers some of the most personalized suggestions and playlists so you can find new music that you would never have heard of a smooth interface. If you just want a basic music streaming player, the free version works just fine with some limitations. Free w/ IAP google play slowly, but of course YouTube Music becomes what we expected from Google Play music, and it continues to improve. With the Hotlist you can get an idea of what the most popular songs are, or find something that is trending before it hits the radio frequency. But the biggest benefit is that you have access to YouTube music if you already subscribe to Google Play Music or YouTube Red. Free w/ ads on Google Play Apple Music made great strides since its inception to try to take on the giant Spotify, and this has largely With over 60 million songs in the catalog as well as exclusives like Beats 1 Radio, Apple Music appeals to everyone and everyone even if you don't own one Apple product. Free Google Play When it comes to streaming music, big names have limitations on audio quality, but that's not a concern with Tidal. This streaming service is designed for audiophiles offering up to 9216Kbps, which is the same quality that you could get from listening to the studio. Connect your favorite headphones, adjust your EQ, and turn the music up. Free w/ IAP at Google Play Best Podcast Apps Source: Andrew Myrick/Android Central Radio Stations can be annoying with ads coming up every few minutes, often lasting longer than the show you're listening to. Podcasts give you access to radio shows that you care about and make it so you can either sit back and enjoy a simple conversation or listen to a riveting story that covers multiple episodes. Pocket Casts is simply the best all-in-one podcast player application that you can get on the Play Store. The app offers easy access to your subscriptions, an array of customizable playback options, and new podcasts easier than ever. In addition, you'll never miss a podcast episode with the different notification options you can set from the app. Free w/ IAP at Google Play If you want a simple, non-sensense podcast player, Google has you covered in its Podcasts app. You can use the Google Search app to find different podcasts and podcast episodes by playing them as they're available. A free Google Play Podcast Addict does so much more than just give you a beautiful interface to interact with your favorite podcasts. The app includes over 100,000 radio stations and 20,000 audiobooks, while also providing personalized recommendations based on your subscription. You can even set up RSS news feeds and follow YouTube/Twitch channels from the app. Free w/ ads on Google Play Castbox are slightly different from other popular podcast players thanks to unique features like Zen Mode and Listening Time. Zen Mode allows you to use Castbox as a source for your meditation sessions, but Listening Time gives you an overview of what your favorite podcasts actually are, as well as how much time you spend listening. Castbox even allows you to connect with like-minded podcast listeners with its awesome community feature. Free w/ IAP at Google Play Best Sleep Tracking Apps Source: Andrew Myrick/Android Central With all the devices booted up around you and screens that are always ready to turn on, it can be tough to get a good night's rest. However, there are some apps in the Play Store that can help you fall asleep while analyzing sleep and providing ways to improve. It can be tough waking up in time, let alone trying to analyze your unless you have an app, such as a sleep cycle. The app will coach you to have a better night's sleep regularly, but gently waking you up at the right time to make you feel refreshed. Using the analysis tab, you can look at how you slept the night before, check if you tap, and get suggestions to sleep even better. Free w/ IAP Google Play Waking up time is a difficult task, but falling asleep can be just as tough. With sleep sounds, it's a bit easier. The app includes 12 different natural sounds, runs offline, and allows you to set a timer so the app won't be running all night. Free w/ IAP at Google Play Sleep Time combines the benefits of sleep log, alarm clock, and sleep analysis for all beautifully designed applications. Different background algorithms will help you get the best night's sleep that you have had in years. Then you can wake up the next day to see how well you slept and how long. Free w/ IAP at Google Play sleep tracking can be frustrating because you almost never get the same results using a smartwatch or phone. Sleep like Android is doing a great job of providing you with all the tools you need to get a great night's sleep with the ability to connect with your favorite wearables. You can then easily view your data from the Sleep app as Android, or you can use the Google Fit and Samsung S Health apps. Free w/ IAP at Google Play Best Dating Apps Source: Andrew Myrick/Android Central Breakups are tough to get through at all, but there comes a time when you want to strap on your boots and get back in the saddle.
